

Privacy Policy

Welcome to BonkList's Privacy Policy!

We know—nobody grabs a coffee, snuggles into their couch, and says, “Time to read the Privacy Policy!”... But you're not just anybody. And neither are we.

That's why we wrote this policy not in robotic legal-speak, but for real humans—like you.

We'll walk you through, without boring you to tears: what data we collect, why we collect it, and what we actually do with it.

Don't worry—we don't just “bonk” your personal info all over the place!

Your digital safety genuinely matters to us.

So buckle up (or unbuckle—get comfy), grab your favorite drink, and join us on a delightful ride through the universe of personal data.

Ready? Let's go.

Because at BonkList, privacy is fun.

This Privacy Policy is effective as of XX/XX/XXXX.

1. Who Are We?

The company responsible for your data (a.k.a. the “data controller”) is:

Hadisatalım Biz Elektronik Ticaret ve Pazarlama Hizmetleri A.Ş. (Hadisatalım)

Emniyet Evler Mah. Eski Büyükdere Cad.

Sapphire Sitesi No:1/1

Kagithane, İstanbul

Turkey

2. Where Does This Privacy Policy Apply?

Wherever there's BonkList, there is this policy!

Whether you're making magical matches in our app, spicing up your sex life, or shaking things up in the challenge arenas—we're right there with you. We call all of this our “services.”

But hey—sometimes, certain features may have their own privacy rules. If that happens, you'll see a separate policy pop up, and what it says will apply. No surprises—we'll always keep you in the loop.

3. The Data We Collect

A bit of info = a lot of fun!

Let us be clear from the start: if you don't share key details about yourself and the people you connect with, we can't truly know you—and therefore, we can't help you reach the pinnacle of fun and a high-quality sex life.

Every time you use our service—when you log in, how often you use certain features—some data is created automatically. Don't worry, we're not spying on you; we just want to personalize your experience.

Also, if you log in to BonkList via another platform (e.g., Facebook, Google, or Apple) or choose to upload info from your account on that platform, we may collect data from there too. (Thanks, technology!)

Curious about exactly what this data is? Check out the transparent, detail-packed table below:

Data You Provide to Us
Category	Description
Account Data	When you create an account, you tell us a bit about yourself. At the start of your BonkList journey—when you make an account—you provide the basics: phone number, email address, and birth date. It might sound boring, but these are essential for knowing who you are and for guiding you correctly in the digital universe. Don't worry—we won't show up with a birthday cake. (At least not yet.)
Profile Data	Things get more interesting as you complete your profile! As you fill out your profile, you provide deeper info: gender, preferences, approximate location, and sometimes health details... These are golden for understanding who you are! Some information—like sexual orientation, sexual life preferences, or health status—is considered “sensitive” or “special” in some countries. But when you choose to share them with us, you also permit us to use them in accordance with this Privacy Policy. In short: the more you share, the better we can tailor your experience.
Content	This is your stage—spotlight on you! When you use the service, you don't just click around—you leave parts of yourself. Photos, videos, voice recordings, messages... basically, anything you express yourself with! With these, we get to know you better and make your experience uniquely yours. You take the stage; we set the lights and music.
Purchase Data	When you buy something or accept a “challenge accepted!” moment... Whether you purchase a feature or jump into a challenge—we track that action. What you got, when you got it, how much you paid... it's all recorded. But don't worry—we won't stick it on a wall paper. Depending on how you pay, the data may vary. If you pay directly with us (not via IOS or Android's system), you may need to provide financial details like your bank or credit card number. In short, we won't snoop around your wallet. But to do amazing things with you, we need to know the what, when, and how much.
Marketing, Survey & Research Data	Every now and then, we like to ask for your opinion—or entertain you! We may run surveys for research, focus groups, or market checks. Sometimes we turn it into pure entertainment: promos, events, raffles, contests... You win, we learn. If you choose to take part, we collect your info, responses, and feedback. Knowing what you think matters to us —it helps us offer a better experience and grow our community.
Third-Party Data	If you choose to share info about someone else with us—like providing a friend's contact for a feature, or sending feedback or a report about a user—we process these data on your behalf to fulfill your request. If you're curious about how we handle the data of non-users, click here for full transparency .
Customer Support Data	When you contact us, we ask for info that may be necessary to address your question or issue. Other users may also contact us with reports

Data You Provide to Us
Category	Description
	that include you. And our moderation tools and teams may collect additional data as part of their investigations. By the way, we're part of the Hadisatalım Biz family, and safety is a top priority. If you've been banned in another Hadisatalım service for serious rule-breaking, that info can be shared with us, and we may take fast action—like preventing you from signing up or closing your account. Also, if legally permitted, we may receive info from third parties about suspicious or convicted individuals to protect our community. In short: we do everything we can to distinguish who's here to play—and who's here to cause trouble. Because your safety isn't just a priority—it's a must.
Social Media Data	If you're better known elsewhere—Facebook, Instagram, Apple, Google...—and you choose to use those accounts to create or log in, we're happy to accept! You may even choose to upload voice, photo, video, and similar content from those platforms. So basically, if you say “I come with existing data from other services,” we say “Welcome!” and process what you share on your behalf.

Data That's Generated or Automatically Collected While You Use the Service
Category	Description
Usage Data	Every click, tap, swipe, bonk—we take note (digitally, not creepily). When you use BonkList, we collect data about how you use it: when you log in, what features you play with, what actions you take, what info is shown to you, which pages led you here, which ads caught your eye, and how you interact with others (think: becoming a partner, joining a “challenge,” or sending a cheeky message). We also collect data about how you interact with our ads across other websites or apps—because your journey isn't limited to our walls!
Technical Data	What kind of device are you rocking? What version of the app? Does it crash? What's your IP address, device ID, type, OS version, screen resolution, app settings, advertising identifiers, or cookies that help us know if it's you? Yes—we collect all that, too. Not to spy... but to make BonkList purr on your device like a well-fed cat. Curious about cookies? See our Cookie Policy for dessert.

Other Data we collect with your Permission
Geo-location Data	If you allow us, we'll collect your device's geographic location (latitude and longitude). This helps us suggest fun or relevant stuff near you. But if you say "no thanks" to this permission, features that rely on precise location may not work. So it's your call. Adventure mode on or off—you decide.
Face Geometry Data	Some of our cool features, like Photo Verification or ID & Selfie Checks, may involve collecting face geometry data—which in some places is legally considered "biometric data." If you choose to use those features, we'll process that data in line with this Privacy Policy. Want more deets? Learn more [right here].
Identity Data	Want to prove you're really you? (Maybe you're a VIP. Maybe you're just awesome.) We might ask for an official ID, like a passport or license, to confirm your identity. Your selfie game matters—but sometimes legal docs seal the deal.
Voice and Breath Data	Yep, you heard that right (literally). For certain features, we may collect voice or breath data—if you give us permission. This helps us power up specific challenges or cool new tools we're developing. Like karaoke? Or breath-based games? Just wait... We won't record your sleep sounds. Promise. You might opt out of this of course but remember: if you accept, we can dive into a better experience.

4. Why and How We Use Your Data

Wondering what we actually do with all that data?

Short answer: It's all about helping you have fun, grow, and stay safe!

The main reason we collect your data is to give you the best BonkList experience possible. That means pulling you into the action—fun, spicy challenges, even a more satisfying sex life. We also use your data to personalize everything just for you and make your time on BonkList more enjoyable.

But hey, it's not all about fun (though that's a big part).

Your safety is serious business to us.

We're constantly improving our systems to protect you and everyone in our community. We stay alert for potential threats, because your peace of mind matters—a lot.

And yep, we use your data to show you more relevant ads (even if you don't love ads, at least let them be the kind that actually interest you, right?).

No stress—you can control all of this in your settings.

Ready to get into the details?

Let's dive deeper together.

Purposes for Processing Your Data	Legal Bases for Processing	Categories of Data Processed (These are explained in detail in Section 3 of this Policy))
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● So... What Do We Actually Do With Your Data? ● Welcome to the backstage of the fun! ● All that data helps us keep BonkList up and running—just for you. Here's how it works: ● Creating and remembering your account and profile (yep, we never forget you!) ● Powering all those cool app features and making sure everything runs smoothly ● Suggesting other members to you (and showing you to others—because sharing is caring) ● Running raffles, challenges, and contests—because what's BonkList without fun? ● Responding to your questions and requests—ghosting you isn't our style ● Monitoring the system to catch bugs and squash them fast ● Processing your application if you want to join the VIP club ● Long story short: We use your data to keep everything silky smooth and enjoyable for you. Because BonkList isn't just an app—it's your playground for connection, pleasure, and a better quality of life. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● And the other reasons we process your data? ● To stick to our agreement with you — a deal's a deal! 5. How Do We Share Your Data?

Yes, We Share — But Don't Worry, the Fun Stays On

Here's the deal: our goal is crystal clear — to give you a fun, supportive, and deeply satisfying experience. Yes, emotionally and otherwise.

That's why some of your information can be visible to other members. I mean, who wants to connect with a mysterious, empty profile? Exactly.

Also — real talk — we don't run this show solo. We've got amazing behind-the-scenes helpers: service providers, business partners, fellow members of the Hadisatalim family, and their trusted collaborators.

And yes, sometimes we might have to share data for legal reasons. (But don't worry — we're not in the business of spilling tea.)

Want to know exactly how and when we do it? Keep reading. It's all transparent, with your consent and comfort at heart.

Recipients	Why We Share	Categories of Personal Data
Other members	If You Choose to Share, It Will Be Seen Whatever you add to your profile — your witty bio, bold photos, or that “this is me!” info — if it's public, yes, others will see it. So it's totally up to you how much you show or keep to yourself. You're in control. Now for the “community harmony” part: If someone reports you (say, for breaking community rules), we may let them know — briefly — what action we took. Same goes the other way around: if you report someone, we'll keep you in the loop. This place is meant to be safe, fun, and full of respect — and we're building that together.	Profile Data Content Social Media Data Third-Party Data Customer Support Data

They help us with analytics, hosting, customer support, advertising, payments, security, and more. Which data they access totally depends on the service they're providing — nothing more, nothing less. Here's a look at what might be shared: Account Data – Basic info you gave us when signing up Profile Data – All your BonkList preferences and the vibe you show the world Content – Photos, videos, voice clips, etc. whatever cool stuff you've uploaded Purchase Data – What you bought and when you bought it Marketing & Survey Data – Feedback you gave, surveys you joined Third-Party Data – Info you allowed to be shared with us from other platforms Customer Support Data – Details you gave when you reached out for help Social Media Data – Content flowing in from your connected social accounts Usage Data – What you use, how often, and how you interact in the app Technical Data – Device info, app settings, system stats Location Data – If you said yes, your general whereabouts Face Geometry Data – From facial recognition if you used it for ID verification ID Data – Official documents you shared to confirm your identity

		Voice and Breath Data – If you opted in to let us hear your sweet sounds or track your breathwork All of this is used carefully, respectfully, and only when needed — to boost your experience, keep you safe, and deliver the smoothest BonkList ride possible. Your privacy? Always top priority.
Ad Partners	Where Do the Ads Come From? You might see ads for third-party products and services in BonkList from time to time. Likewise, we might show BonkList ads on other websites or apps — gotta spread the fun, right? To make sure the ads you see are actually interesting (or at least not totally random), we may share certain info with our ad partners. Here's how that works: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Through cookies, SDKs, or similar tech, our partners can collect data about how you use BonkList. • Some partners let us turn info like your email address, phone number, or ad ID into a secure code (a hashed identifier) that doesn't actually identify you. • These hashed codes help us reach people with similar interests — people who might just love BonkList like you do. • They also help make sure we don't keep showing you promos you've already seen or used. Because honestly, once is enough. So yes, ads — but smarter, more relevant ones. All so your fun isn't interrupted by stuff that doesn't vibe with you.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Account Data Profile Data Usage Data Technical Data

In the context of a merger or acquisition, with our Affiliates or new owner(s).	Sometimes things change — our company might merge with another, be sold, or go through a makeover. If that happens, your data might come along for the ride — meaning it could be shared with the new owner(s) or partners. But don't worry, your privacy stays our priority throughout the whole journey	The types of data shared depend on the kind of corporate event taking place. Sometimes it's the whole organizational data pack, other times it's just a slice — like Purchase Data. So whether it's a big move or a small shuffle, the data that tags along is chosen accordingly!
When you use the profile sharing feature	By tapping the share button, you can show your friends outside the app other members' profiles. Of course, they can share your profile too — double the fun for everyone!	Profile Data Content

6. How Hadisatalım Biz Companies Work Together

For the reasons outlined below, we may share some of your information with our affiliated companies — and they may also share some with us — to better understand you, keep you safe, and help you make meaningful connections:

- No room for bad behavior! If someone shady is spotted somewhere in the Hadisatalım Biz universe, we work together to identify them and make sure they're banned across all our platforms. Your safety is our top priority!
- We've got each other's backs! Data hosting, customer service, ads, analytics, payment processing... Our teams join forces behind the scenes to keep everything running as smooth as butter.
- More connections, more fun! We may make you visible on other Hadisatalım Biz services to open new doors to connections. Don't worry — we'll always let you know and ask for your permission first.
- Tailored just for you. We use your information to better understand how you use our services, so we can offer personalized suggestions and laser-focused campaigns — always in compliance with the law.
- Boring but important stuff. Internal audits, analysis, and reporting may not sound exciting, but they help keep our systems running strong!

Curious about how the Hadisatalım Biz companies work together as a team? Feel free to reach out — we'd love to tell you more!

7. Cross-Border Data Transfers

The BonkList universe isn't limited to your neighborhood — it's a global playground!

So, as explained in Section 5, some of your data may be transferred to countries with different data protection laws — including the United States.

But don't worry! If we ever need to transfer your data outside the countries like the European Economic Area (EEA), the United Kingdom, or Switzerland — where strict data protection rules apply — we rely on strong legal safeguards called Standard Contractual Clauses (SCCs). These are official commitments made between us and the parties we share data with, to keep your data safe.

If you'd like a copy of these clauses, or you're simply curious about "Where's my data going?", just contact us — we're happy to explain!

8. Your Rights

Your data, your control!

At BonkList, we believe you should be in full control of your personal data. That's why we want to keep you in the loop about the rights you have and the choices you can make.

Below, we've listed some of your key rights and the tools available to help you exercise them. Keep in mind, depending on where you live, the names or scope of these rights might vary a bit — but don't worry, we're always here to support you no matter what.

Got questions like "How do I use this right?" or "Which ones apply to me?" Just reach out — we're here for you!

Your Rights	How to Exercise It?
Check Your Data – Know It, See It, Own It! Got this question on your mind? "What does BonkList actually know about me?" Great question – and guess what? It's your right to ask! At any time, you can: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Find out exactly which personal data we process about you, • Ask for a copy of that data, • Even take it with you and move it somewhere else if you like. Yep, you're in full control of your data – and we're here to keep that control easy and transparent. If you want to use this right, just reach out to us. We'll walk you through what's what, and how to get it. Because your trust? That's everything to us.	Checking Your Data Is a Piece of Cake! "What info do I have here? Where is it saved? Can I check it?" Of course you can! Just log into your account — you'll easily be able to view and even update some of your personal data right there. Thinking "I wanna see all my data in one go!"? No problem at all! Just reach out to us — we'll prep a copy of your data and send it your way. Bottom line: You ask, we deliver. You're in control, we've got your back!
Fix It Up! Keep Your Info Fresh Everybody types a wrong letter sometimes — we call that being human.	Tiny Tweaks, Big Fixes! Changed something about yourself? New vibe, new style? Update your profile — let it shine right away!

But if there's a mistake in your personal data? That's where we draw the line! Spotted something wrong or missing? Log in, update your info — it's all in your hands. Or just drop us a message, and we'll fix it together. Correct info = better experience. Your data, your truth. We're just here to help.	But hey, if some info is buried deep in the system and out of your reach... Don't worry, just reach out to us — we'll fix it together. When you update, BonkList gets better too.
Delete, Cleanse, Refresh! Not feeling like being with us anymore? (We hope it's just a short break!) Your data, your choice. You can delete some data yourself or close your account. For the remaining digital footprints, just reach out to us — we'll carefully clean it all up. Because at BonkList, your privacy is our priority.	If You're Ready for a Fresh Start... You can delete some of your data directly within the BonkList app. If you choose to close your account completely, we'll remove the necessary data in line with this Privacy Policy — carefully, thoroughly, and by the book! We're here to make sure you're not left with any questions. Don't feel alone — you can always reach out to us. Because even in your digital life, you're in control!

Privacy is Sacred! But First... Let’s Make Sure It’s Really You

Your privacy is our top priority — seriously!

So when you ask to exercise one of your rights (like we listed above), we may need to verify your identity first.

Why? Because we’d never want someone else snooping around your data. Nope, not on our watch!

But also, keep in mind:

- If we can’t verify that it’s really you
- If your request is illegal or invalid
- Or if fulfilling it would violate someone else’s privacy, rights, or trade secrets...

Then we might have to say no to your request (with all due respect, of course).

Example: If you ask for a copy of messages from someone else, we’ll need them to make that request themselves. (We’re not in the gossip business)

What If We Say No?

You’ve got the right to object!

Just get in touch, mention it’s a “Privacy Request Appeal”, and share the details.

Still not satisfied with the outcome? You can also reach out to your local data protection authority.

Living in the EEA or the UK?

That means you also have the right to file a complaint with the relevant regulator.

Long story short:

Your data, your rights.

We’re just here to protect you — and everyone else — the best we can.

9. How Long Do We Keep Your Data?

Do Your Data Live Forever?

We wish BonkList connections could last forever...

But when it comes to your data, things work a little differently.

We only keep your information for as long as necessary and as allowed by law. Simple, transparent, and totally under control!

What Happens When You Say Goodbye?

If you decide BonkList isn't your vibe anymore:

- You can close your account (No hard feelings — but we'll miss you!).
- If you're inactive for two years, we'll quietly close your account (no drama, we promise).

So... How Long Do We Hold On to Your Data?

1. For Security Reasons:

After you close your account:

- We retain certain data for at least 3 months,
- Or for 1 year if the account was banned for breaking rules.

Why? To protect our community from bad behavior — BonkList's shield is always up!

2. For Legal Requirements:

- Transaction and billing data: 10 years
- Credit card data: As long as needed for dispute periods
- Traffic/log data: 1 year
- Consent records: 5 years

3. For Our Business (But Always With You in Mind!):

- Customer service records: 6 years
- Estimated download/purchase location: 5 years
- Account/subscription history: Deleted 3 years after account closure
- Profile data for legal defense: 1 year
- Security-related exceptions: As long as strictly necessary

4. In Special Cases:

If there's a legal dispute, investigation, or formal request, we might need to hang on to some data. Our legal team makes sure we play by the rules.

What About Anonymous Data?

If the data can't identify you directly and the law allows it, we might use it to:

- Improve the service
- Develop new features
- Strengthen platform safety

Because we're always working to make BonkList better for you!

10. Children's Privacy

BonkList Is for Grown-Ups Only!

This place is designed for individuals aged 18 and up.

Yep, only adults get to have fun here!

If you're under 18, we're sorry — this party isn't for you.

If you suspect that someone using BonkList might be underage, please report it using the in-app reporting tool. We'll jump on it ASAP.

Want to learn more about how we verify age?

Feel free to reach out — creating a safe and age-appropriate space is one of our top priorities!

11. Privacy Policy Updates

This Policy Evolves — Just Like Life!

BonkList doesn't stand still — just like you!

We're constantly exploring new, fun, and safer ways to help you connect.

That's why our Privacy Policy may change over time.

But don't worry:

- If we make a significant change, we'll notify you in advance.
- That way, you'll have enough time to review what's new.

Because your trust and comfort aren't just a priority — they're a promise.
